

Christmas Traditions Quiz

1. Which country hides their brooms and mops on Christmas night, to prevent evil spirits, who return to earth on Christmas, stealing them for a ride through the sky? (Norway)
2. While Christmas is not exactly a huge holiday here, this country hosts Christmas dinner with a big bucket of Kentucky Fried Chicken, of course, branded in Christmas style to mark this tradition. (Japan)
3. Folks from here exchange books on Christmas eve and then settle down in front for a cozy evening of the fire reading (aloud) and eating sweets. (Iceland)
4. This country started the tradition of fruit cake. (Egypt)
5. Already stuffed after a three-course meal? This country celebrates Christmas dinner with a 12-course feast - each dedicated to one of Jesus' apostles. (Ukraine)
6. Want to celebrate with a Night of the Radishes? Where do you have to travel to see nativity scenes carved into radishes on the 23rd? (Mexico)
7. This country closes down streets for cards so that their people can go rollerskating to church on Christmas morning. (Venezuela)
8. Which children leave carrots in their shoes for the white horse named Amerigo? (Netherlands)
9. Christmas here will mean waiting for dinner on Christmas Eve until someone spots the first star shining in the night sky. (Polen)
10. In the first week of December, especially on the eve of St. Nicolas Day, young men dress up like beast-like demon creatures to roam the city streets and frighten children with clattering chains and bells. (Austria)
11. Roast turkey and ham are not your favorite meal? How about fried caterpillars for Christmas dinner? (South Africa)
12. A „Grinch“ Scrooged this country out of Christmas celebrations for more than 300 years. It was only made legal again in 1958. (Scotland)